

Who (Potential Participants)

Home makers, Ladies, working professionals in service/business, home makers, youth, teenagers.

Why (Purpose)

Warli is an Indian Tribe in Central Maharashtra extending up to Gujarat. Historians say that they have inherited a painting tradition ranging from about 3000 BC to 10th Century AD! Warli art brings us close to simplicity in life, lost in today's digital world. The purpose of this workshop is to introduce and inspire both the novice as well as the well versed individual into understanding and pursuing this traditional art form.

How (Process)

Interactively practicing the Warli art forms, in our modular workshops:

WARLI BASIC – A Four hour module

The purpose of this program is to introduce you interactively to the traditional warli art. It will include a presentation on warli art - background, basic shapes and themes. Participants will then get to do a live activity of painting a simple warli greeting card, as well as a simple warli artifact (like a desk flower pot)

WARLI ADVANCE (Covered in 3 modules of 4 hours each)

The purpose of this advanced program is to introduce you some advanced forms of application of the traditional warli art. Participants will get to paint any three of the following items live, namely - a beautiful warli table mat, a beautiful warli canvas painting, a beautiful short top (for women) or a T-shirt (for men), a decorative warli pot, or a traditional warli frame.

Value (Benefits)

This program will serve as an inspiration for you to understand, appreciate and put into practice our traditional warli art form.

Investment (Program Fee)*

INR 2000/-, per person per module. For group and student discounts, please check with us.

About Value ART!

Works of art such as Paintings and Artefacts' speak louder than a thousand words. Art creates value that is often priceless to its creator and its eventual buyer/owner!

Value Art delivers creative services by creating ready-made, as well as custom made as per order paintings - created in different sizes, using a variety of medium such as oil, acrylic, charcoal, dry pastels, photo ink and more. These paintings are made on a variety of base material ranging from hand paper, canvas as well as cloth. Our varied range of paintings include abstract, nature, portraits, still life and many other types. Do have a look at our video "Touching Hearts with Value Art!" on our website in the Value Art section.

We also deliver traditional warli paintings on canvas, paper as well as cloth. We also conduct learning / training sessions from time to time, related to warli paintings. Our creative services also extend to decorating earthenware, designer hand-painted table mats, and designer hand-painted kurtis for women using warli as well as other traditional forms of art. Many people have availed of our services of making and delivering rose shaped multi-colour floating candles, especially during festive seasons and celebration occasions

- Paintings
(Oil, Acrylic, Charcoal, Dry Pastel, Water, more..)
- Artefacts
Floating Candles, Table Mats, Earthen Diyas
- Hand Painted Dress Design

We also aspire to popularise art amongst common people by making it extremely affordable through our art library services, namely ARTwala!

*We strive to keep our program fee affordable, taking inspiration from the attitude of one of India's brightest scientists who struggled to overcome a difficult childhood and achieved his exciting success. He propagated enabling radical social transformation by delivering more (extreme value), from less (ultra low cost means) for more (people to afford and benefit).
