

Who (Potential Participants)

Working professionals in service/business, home makers, youth, teenagers.

Why (Purpose)

Your Exciting Success - YES depends significantly on your ability (talent) and attitude (character) to See, Set, Score ($S \times S \times S = S^3$) your goals. For example, goals related to your career, health, relationships, money or personal development. Individuals and teams often have an abundance of energy, enthusiasm, potential and ambition. Yet the struggle is often to find purpose and direction. The hurdles are often a lack of talent or attitude or both. Having ability (talent/brilliance) with misplaced attitude (wisdom/character) is a challenge. A brilliant individual will experience sustained success, only when his/her talent is utilised wisely. Similarly, an averagely talented individual/team too can stretch his/her capabilities, but only when he/she has a positive attitude. A simple to deploy framework, that can achieve synergy between talent and attitude, can deliver extreme value, throughout life, for every individuals exciting success. The purpose of this program is to inspire individuals to understand and acquire that exciting framework – YES³.

How (Process)

Interactively playing YES³! The program is specifically designed to deliver YES³ - an effective framework and guide for participants to achieve synergy between talent and attitude. Participants undergo an exciting and enjoyable learning experience.

Value (Benefits)

This program will serve as a catalyst for your achieving YES! By experiencing this interactive program you will:

- Gain insights about ego and attitude; open your mind to appreciate varied views and let your opinions evolve flexibly.
- Wisely relate to success, failure, power, process, time, money, resources, and understand what really counts.
- Learn to assess and filter your needs and wants, use visualization techniques to see your goals clearly.
- Learn techniques to assess your own values, to prevent future conflicts between values and goals, saving precious time and resources.
- Learn how to set harmonious goals that are measurable, rewarding and realistic.
- Understand the importance of strategies, tactics, and finally having the conviction to commit to scoring your goals.

About Value GO?AL!

GO?AL!

Which way to GO? This question is probably the most frequent question that people like you and me face almost every day. The answer lies in you and me clearly "knowing" where to go. Often, this "knowing" is difficult and hence creates hurdles for us in moving forward with joy and confidence to achieve our goals, just like ALice in wonderland! In short, we need to truly "know" our "GO?AL!"

Your Exciting Success - YES

Your Exciting Success significantly depends on you 'knowing' your goals. One way of you 'knowing' is by being able to See, Set and Score ($S \times S \times S = S^3$) your goals. For you to be able to S^3 , a synergy between your ability (talent/brilliance) and attitude (character/wisdom) is essential. This, in a way is a habit we have to form, acquire and strengthen, until it becomes a way of life, that we can then play the game of life with, every single day. That is YES³!

Value GO?AL!

We conduct interactive training workshops and learning programs for inspiring positive synergy between attitude and talent for human resource development of individuals and teams.

Value GO?AL! for Individuals

These programs can benefit individuals (men and women) across varied age groups, students, youth, home makers, as well as professionals, senior executives, managers, business leaders and owners. We conduct these workshops at flexible timings/venues suitable to you and provide personalized attention.

Value GO?AL! for Teams

These programs can benefit teams or group of resources from within or across organizations.

Outdoor Residential and Customised Programs

These programs can benefit individuals as well as teams. We can also work with you to design and deliver customized value training and consulting assignments addressing business metrics such as value sales, individual & team motivation, employee alignment to corporate values and goals, effective communication skills and need based consulting services to identify, address and overcome pain areas (example - attitude!). We can work on both a fixed cost model or a time and material model, as well as a retainer + rolling fee model.
